Item 1A. Risk Factors

Demand for home furnishings can be sensitive to housing activity, consumer confidence, and discretionary spending.

We source products from domestic and international manufacturers. Shipping delays, tariffs, or supplier disruptions could affect inventory availability.

Changes in product preferences and online retail competition may require continued investment in product development and customer experience.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Based on an evaluation as of the end of the period covered by this report, management concluded that the company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective. No change in internal control over financial reporting occurred during the reporting period that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, internal control over financial reporting.
